Discussion Guide Questions

Use these questions as a guide for helping your group to thoughtfully engage the material in the film and to gain a deeper understanding of how to respond to the concerns of your peers:

- What is the message of this film? How does it communicate the pro-life message? Do you agree or disagree with any parts of it? Why?
- Did you learn anything from this film or the actions of the characters? Discuss.
- Was there anything you didn't understand about the film or the actions of the characters? What was that?
- What did you like best about the film? Why?
- What did you like least about the film? Why?
- Did anything that happened in this film remind you of something that has occurred in your own life or that you have seen occur to others?
- Are the film's messages about abortion and prayer witness in front of abortion centers portrayed realistically and/or accurately? If not, what needs to be changed?
- What factors influenced the characters' decisions and opinions about abortion and other life issues?
- As you watched the story progress, what were you thinking?
- If you had a chance to ask a character in this film a question, what would it be?
- What feelings did you share with any of the characters in the film?
- If you could respond to the concerns, attitudes, and behaviors of any of the characters in the film, what would you say and why?
- Did any of the characters in this movie make you angry? Discuss why.
- Did you come to respect any of the characters in this movie? Who was it and why did you come to respect that character?
- In what ways are the characteristics of the main characters like your own or those of someone you know? (For example, perhaps you can identify with the character of an abortion worker for his desire to help others, even though his method of helping is misguided.)
- How did you feel about abortion before watching this movie? Has anything changed in the way you feel or think now?
